Vienna, July 22.

THE laſt Letters from Futack adviſe only, that Prince Eugene was returned thither from Peterwaradin, and that Preparations were making with all poſſible Diligence for paſſing the Save. All was yet quiet on the Frontiers. Some Letters ſay the Imperial Reſident, M. Fleiſchman, is put under Confinement at Semendria; but this ſeems to want Confirmation.

Ratisbon, July 30. Letters of the 18th Inſtant from Futack on the Frontiers of Hungary relate, that moſt of the ſeparate Camps were advancing nearer, but had not then joyned the main Army. The Boats ſtopt ſome Days before, by the Imperialiſts, on the River Save, were laden with Plank, &c. for a Bridge, ready fitted up, to be put together on Occaſion. There was a Report that 20000 Tartars were come to Belgrade, but a Confirmation was expected. The Grand Vizier had written a Letter to Prince Eugene, to know what was the Meaning of the Imperial Troops being drawn together; that they, the Turks, were willing to keep the Peace, but were obliged on their Side likewiſe to take the neceſſary Precautions in caſe they ſhould be attacked.

Stockholm, July 1. Letters from Carlſcrona adviſe, that Admiral Wachtmeiſter ſailed from thence about ten Days ago, towards Hanoe and Yſted, with 17 Ships of the Line and 2 Frigates. Two Days before he went out, an Expreſs came to him from the King, which 'tis preſumed brought him Orders to put to Sea; and 'tis ſaid the Expreſs delivered to him alſo a Letter, to be opened when he came to an Anchor at the Iſland of Bornholm. On Sunday laſt a Placart, dated the 1ſt of February laſt, was publiſhed in all the Churches of this City, by which his Majeſty commands all Executors, Truſtees, Overſeers and Inſpectors of Churches, Schools and Hoſpitals within his Kingdom, forthwith to pay into the Chamber of Negotiation whatever Sums of Money they have in their Hands; for which they ſhall receive 6 per Cent. Intereſt. The laſt Letters from the King's Camp, brought an Account of General Morner's being not only appointed Governour of the Provinces formerly mentioned, but that he is created a Count, and has alſo the Title of a Senator given him. The Letters from Jonkoping adviſe, that the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel would, as this Day, be going from thence, to drink the Waters of Medway in Warmland; and her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs, his Conſort, deſigns in a few Days to ſet out from hence to meet the Prince at thoſe Wells, where 'tis probable they will paſs moſt of the Summer Seaſon.

Copenhagen, Aug. 1. Yeſterday arrived Letters from Norway: By thoſe of the freſheſt Date, which is on the 17th paſt, we learn, that the Swedes ſtill continue on the Frontiers of Norway. On the 29th arrived here 10 Muſcovite Men of War, and 4 Frigates, but without any Land-Forces on board, from Petersbourg. The Czar has received by them an Account of the Death of the Princeſs his Siſter, whom he very much loved, and to whom, during his Abſence, he had committed the Care of the Education of the Princes and Princeſſes his Children. The Ruſſian Court is going into Mourning for her. By theſe Ships we are informed, that there are now no more than 3 Swediſh Ships at Bornholm, which makes us think the other 19 are gone to ſeek the Muſcovite Fleet in the Bothnick Gulph. The Troops deſigned to be employed in the Deſcent on Schonen, arrive daily from Holſtein, 17 large Veſſels being continually employed to tranſport them over the Great and Little Belt; and they are encamped at ſome Diſtance from this City. The Adjutant-General Leuenorn ſet out from hence ſome Days ago for Pomerania, to haſten the Imbarkation of the Ruſſian Troops; for tranſporting which the Town of Lubeck is to furniſh ('tis ſaid) 40 Ships, and the King of Pruſſia ſome others. On the 29th at Night the Lord Polwarth arrived here.

Bruſſels, Aug. 5. The Marquis de Deynſe, formerly Governour of this City under King Philip, died Yeſterday ſuddenly of a Fit of an Apoplexy. The Count and Counteſs of Kinigſegg, with ſeveral Ladies and Gentlemen, went Yeſterday in the Afternoon to Boiſ fort, where they are this Day to take the Diverſion of Hunting, and afterwards to be entertained very ſplendidly. We have yet no certain Account of the Day being fixed for the Marquis de Prié's Departure from Vienna for the Netherlands.

Whitehall, Aug. 3. The 1ſt Inſtant being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown, it was celebrated with due Solemnity in all the Churches of London and Weſtminſter, and at Night there were Illuminations and other publick Demonſtrations of Joy.
